Primary Exempt Purpose

Primary Exempt Purpose

Open Legal Services is primarily a charitable organization which offers legal services on a sliding-scale to clients in Utah who do not qualify for free, pro bono help but who also cannot afford a private attorney. We offer help with divorce, custody, guardianship, adoption, parental and grandparent rights, guardian ad litem, criminal defense, and juvenile defense. Our legal services program includes direct representation, unbundled legal services, partial representation, and consultations. For our clients, who have no other options but to pay thousands of dollars while living paycheck to paycheck, we can mean the difference between injustice and access to justice. Our education program serves other attorneys and those interested in replicating what we do.

First Program Service Accomplishments Description

Description

who cannot use the services of a pro bono legal aid organization (or public defender) due to conflict, jurisdictional issues, urgency, immigration status, income restrictions, area of practice, or a number of other disqualifying factors. We accept these clients and provide services on a sliding scale. These clients would likely have been forced to represent themselves, or to forgo their legal options. The average billable rate per hour for our clients in 2014 was approximately $59, well below the average market rate of approximately $175-225 per hour. In Utah approximately 80% of family law cases have at least one party who is unrepresented by an attorney. Our mission is to reduce that number in a way that clients can afford, so they may have access to justice.

Second Program Service Accomplishments Description

Description

offer consultations to potential nonprofits in other states, and speak to state bars and universities about the work that we do and the type of organization we have created. This brings awareness to our mission, while offering a viable option for other states to provide the same kinds of services to their own working poor. In 2014, we traveled to Montana and Oregon. In Montana we presented to the young lawyers division of the state bar, approximately 100 people interested in running their practice to be able to serve the working poor. In Oregon, we participated in a workshop to develop ideas for improving legal services for this demographic, along with 200 or so other attorneys. Finally, we presented to the Utah State Bar to discuss the evolving practice of law and the changes that need to happen in the coming years.
